Peaceful 60 Acres on the Doorstep to Yengo National Park

Nestled in a gorgeous valley, this 60-acre rural holding features stunning natural bushland surrounds and borders National Park on two sides. Less than two hours from Sydney this tranquil bush retreat will make you feel a million miles away from city life. The property features an off-grid weekender style shed set in a quiet valley and the land holds a dwelling entitlement meaning you could build your dream country home in the future (Subject to DA approval).

The cosy shed is fully self-sufficient with a small solar power system, wood stove for cooking, slate, timber & concrete floors, a warming slow combustion fireplace and second story loft room with a balcony to enjoy the mountain views. A second studio with timber deck makes another great sleepout.

There are many places to explore and appreciate the prolific bird life, flora and fauna, nature lovers will be in their element. Multiple grassy gulley's make great camp sites and currently have 2 caravans that are included in the sale. An intermittent wetland line runs along the valley floor, which the weekender overlooks and features a beautiful deep waterhole/swimming hole.

There is no mobile reception, which is increasingly rare and creates a much needed screen/media break. The property has a functioning landline phone and the NBN satellite services are available for internet in the area if you desire. With only 2 properties further along Knights Road, the location is sure to provide total peace & privacy.
