

Lot 16 Rocky Creek Road, Wollombi

The Zigzag Cabin

If minimalistic living is something you are passionate about, the footprint and design of this gorgeous little cabin has been cleverly constructed to create the perfect minimal needs weekender retreat. With Amazing views! Surrounded by nature! Adjoining State Forest! This architectural masterpiece, designed by architect 'Drew Heath' is known as the Zigzag cabin!

Meandering your way up the mountain on an adventurous trail you arrive to your destination on the peak of a majestic mountain top. Instantly the natural bushland surrounds will take you to a place of total calm and tranquility. Arriving at the Zigzag Cabin is like arriving at an outpost or base camp. Making your way on a short foot trail through intriguing rock features you are greeted by a romantic undercover outdoor kitchen/dining area. Made from natural sandstone rocks this all-weather structure makes the perfect place for an exclusive dining experience. Hammocks are hung, kitchen assembled and a fire is started in a carved recess in the hill behind (Fire bans permitting). Nearby, an outdoor sink plumbed into a 1,000-litre water tank marries in well, providing the perfect lux bush kitchen for washing up the dishes after a delicious camp dinner is enjoyed here!!!
