

5551 George Downes Drive, Bucketty

'Knights Arm' a Picturesque 'Private Valley'

A romantic log cabin set amidst a 47-hectare (approx. 116 acre) private valley with rolling hills and stunning bushland surrounds. The home is positioned in a sheltered location looking onto beautiful Australian bushland, an intermittent creek and scenic pastured acres. The three to four bedroom log cabin style home offers open plan living spaces, is very light and airy, has a high gabled roof line and comes complete with a bunk house and bathroom facility downstairs, providing additional accommodation great for friends and family. A country style kitchen, bathroom and internal laundry all add into the equation for the perfect country retreat. Return wrap around verandahs take full advantage of the great outdoors.

Creature comforts include a wood burning slow combustion fire place and reverse cycle split air conditioning. Gorgeous timber floors and ceilings compliment the log cabin feel throughout the house.

Taking a walk on a meandering trail through the property will lead you to the higher ground where the views back down to the cabin can be appreciated. On the way you will discover three dams, one with a pontoon, beautiful willow trees, gorgeous grass lands and tall timbers to the distance.
