'The Lodge' A Rustic Weekender in The Heart Of 'Historic Wollombi'

Within walking distance to the boutique village of 'Historic Wollombi' this unique small acreage would make the perfect country getaway. Oozing character and charm the timber slab constructed cottage is nestled among park like grounds and bounded by the North Arm of the Wollombi Brook. Delightful leafy garden surrounds will tantalize your senses as you stroll through the glorious tree studded grounds and open pastures.

The cottage comprises three bedrooms, an open plan living area centered around a warming slow combustion fire place, country style kitchen with timber benches, a cosy bathroom, composting toilet system, sunny north facing under cover outdoor area and character filled front under cover verandah. Various sheds and structures are located on the property and provide great storage and farm equipment shelters. The property has mains power, tar sealed road frontage, located in a mobile phone service area and having the added convenience of being very handy to village amenities and nearby winery/cellar doors.

If you love 'Australiana' charm then this gorgeous country retreat could be just the one for you. Escape the hustle and bustle of city life and have the
